

Investing to Serve our Local Community

$87.2 million

The proposed behavioral health hospital will have an estimated total impact on income of nearly $87.2 million throughout all businesses and industries for the Tri-County Portland region (Clackamas, Washington, Multnomah).

For every $1 of income generated by the proposed behavioral health hospital, another estimated $0.36 is generated in other businesses and industries.

195-250 jobs

The proposed behavioral health hospital will employ over 195-250 jobs including physicians, nurses, clinicians, mental health technicians and support staff.

$30.5 million

The construction and operations of the proposed behavioral health hospital will boost local household expenditures by more than $30.5 million.

$13.8 million

Annually, the proposed behavioral health hospital will generate $13.8 million in compensation paid to hospital employees.

$50.2 million

The proposed behavioral health hospital will contribute an estimated $50.2 million to the Gross Area Product (GAP) of the Tri-County region.